While initially referring to those born in the Americas of African descent, v The study of the medieval Africa has revealed the development of complex social, political, and economic systems across the continent. Born in Umuohara, Akaigbo in Igboland he was sold at about the age of twelve as a slave in Bonny. Indeed the ways in which the ports of coastal Africa were integrated into trans-Atlantic slavery reveal complex patterns that make it imperative to understand the African dimension. As a result, the home cultural patterns became neglected or forgotten. Though most were bound for rural haciendas, thousands remained in the port, where they performed vital functions as shipbuilders, dockworkers, constructors, and small farmers and fishermen. In the face of increasing international isolation, the government intensified its campaign for national unity.
