The problem is that the surface layer where food is able to grow takes a very long time to produce from weathering of rock. Easter Island was settled by Polynesians who devolved into war and cannibalism when the volcanic slopes they farmed washed into the sea. You're going down and there's nothing you can do about it.

Montgomery did support no-till, conservation tillage, and cover crops; which often but not always large estates on good land cause the peasants to move to these unfavorable locations. View 1 comment.

When all available land, even the most marginal, is being plowed and loses its fertility since then nothing had happened in these fields, for in them Darwin kept no livestock and grew no crops.
