Our tour guide was a fruit loop and genuinely if anything she was probably the creepiest thing about it. Thanks in part to Castle's gimmickry, the film was a huge success.

Whatyouthought Instead of being a mild-mannered, wholesome witch who lives next door and gets into delightful mischief, this version of Sabrina played by Kiernan Shipka engages in twisted spells and horrifying rituals. They had a couple of guys dress up as scary people, one halfway through the walk and the grim reaper at the end, in the underground. She took us down some well lit streets in which we Walked down several times in our stay and every so often shed put her big wooden cross up to tell us a lame story in which I'm not convinced a 8 year old would bother .
