In the Goths won the great battle of Adrianople, and after this Theodosius the Great, the successor of Valens, made terms with them inand the mass of the Gothic warriors entered the Roman service as foederati. The city has numerous important educational establishments. It was not only by extremists like Gosson that these abuses were recognized.

See above, in one of the notes on Italy, what tyranny Philip the Fair and Philip of Valois exercised over the popes during their time in Avignon. Well worth a look, if you're not feeling quite ready to take on one of his bigger books.
