Long winter's nap? Global slowdown, market fears could extend Fed pause - Reuters

In the depths of winter, do you find yourself wanting to sleep more, eat more and curl up by the fire? You've probably heard of Seasonal Affective Disorder, or SAD. But some have noted that SAD's symptoms have more in common with hibernation than with clinical depression.

The prancing and pawing of each little hoof. Even that may be optimistic. Nose and flavor are rife with sweet bourbon, vanilla, caramel, marzipan, candied chestnut, port, and touches of dark peach, nectarine, and plum. AllRightsReserved. Nice tasting winter bourbon drink. As leaves that before the wild hurricane fly. But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight—.
